PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This black Prolight beanie comes with crisp white embroidery, so everyone knows you either work here... or you’re a die-hard fan who takes brand loyalty a little too seriously. Even if you’re only popping into the warehouse for “one quick thing” that somehow becomes a full-blown tour of duty.

The double-layer knit keeps your head warm in winter, warehouses, loading bays, chilly offices, and any venue where someone has definitely “forgotten to turn the heating on again.” Soft-touch acrylic keeps it comfortable, and the cuffed design conveniently hides the fact you absolutely did not brush your hair this morning.

One size fits all. (Yes, even that one guy. Especially that one guy.)

Perfect for staff, event crews, tech teams, night shifts, and Prolight superfans who want to look vaguely put together while silently questioning life choices.

USER MANUAL SECTIONS

1.0 PRODUCT OVERVIEW

Congratulations on acquiring the Prolight Beanie, the cutting-edge head-insulation device designed for staff, superfans, and anyone brave enough to face a Prolight warehouse in January.

It delivers warmth, professionalism, and mild identity confusion (“Do you work here?” The answer is now always yes).

2.0 SAFETY INFORMATION

- Avoid operating machinery while admiring yourself.
 - Keep away from flames, pyro and colleagues who “just want to try it on.”
 - Wearing backwards may cause unsolicited compliments from the lighting department.
 - Wearing forwards may cause people to ask where stock is. Accept your destiny.

3.0 INSTALLATION INSTRUCTIONS

1. Locate head (top of body — usually).
 2. Rotate beanie so the Prolight logo faces forward for maximum credibility.
 3. Pull down until:
 - Ears are warm
 - Hair is hidden
 - Confidence increases by at least 12%
 4. Confirm installation by nodding approvingly at your reflection.

4.0 OPERATING MODES

Standard Mode – Everyday warmth and competence.

Warehouse Mode – Maximum insulation for industrial-strength cold.

Fan Mode – Slight backward slouch for non-staff superfans.

Didn’t-Brush-My-Hair Mode – The beanie understands.

5.0 ENVIRONMENTAL SUITABILITY

Compatible with:

- Cold mornings
 - Cold warehouses
 - Cold loading bays
 - Cold offices
 - Outdoor UK events (all of them)
 - Vehicles with broken heaters

6.0 MAINTENANCE

- Machine wash on gentle cycle.
 - Do not iron — the logo already looks sharp.
 - Do not lend to colleagues unless you're prepared to never see it again.
 - Remove fluff manually like a responsible adult.

7.0 TROUBLESHOOTING

Issue: Head cold

Solution: Install beanie.

Issue: People keep asking if you work here

Solution: Accept compliment.

Issue: Hair looks flat

Solution: Expected. Working as intended.

Issue: Beanie missing

Solution: A colleague has “borrowed” it. Acquire another immediately.

8.0 WARRANTY

The Prolight Beanie includes an unofficial emotional warranty:

If joy drops below expected levels, rotate slightly, reinstall, and continue operation.

9.0 FINAL NOTES

9.0 FINAL NOTES

- Wear with pride.
- Wear with warmth.
- Wear because you didn't brush your hair.

And finally, a message from the Prolight Marketing Department (Team Crayon):

Thank you for choosing the official Prolight beanie — scientifically proven* to increase confidence, improve warehouse survival rates, and reduce unsolicited Monday morning conversations by up to 47%. This manual was lovingly crafted using caffeine, questionable ideas, and the same creative magic that powers everything from our product launches to our in-house chaos.

Remember:

Prolight isn't just a workplace — it's a lifestyle.

A cold, warehouse-heavy, "where's that pallet gone?" lifestyle...

...but a lifestyle all the same.

Wear your beanie knowing you belong to an elite group of people who make things happen, fix things no one else understands, and keep the entire industry running even when the coffee machine gives up.

Stay warm. Stay sharp.

Stay Prolight.

*Not actually scientifically proven. Team Crayon just really wanted to put that in.
